The girl in the red.

33 2 4

Chapter 1 by Tia Mullaney

I stood in the centre of the ring of fire, surrounding the city.

Chapter 2 by Maya

This momentous wall of fire that surrounded the city I call home is only a new feature in our lives. We used to be like any other city. With tunnels, roads, and bridges connecting us to the outside world. Now we just sit her, waiting for this wall to open. Us, and our neighboring city Morinah, have been in a battle for land for many years, but recently when we tried to expand they sent this women. She just walked right past all of the high-tech defenses we set up, straight into the castle, and then the wall. Everyone has started calling her "the girl in red" but I call her sister. Now all that matters is that I can stay away from her until this whole mess goes away. But as I stare at the towering fire brigade I realise this won't be as easy as I thought, as here she comes marching right towards me.
